

LOCAL DOINGS IN TABLOID FORM

Municipal Voters' League endorsed three women candidates for aldermen.

Mrs. E. R. Carpenter, 60, 410 N. Paulina st., bookkeeper, killed by C. M. & St. P. train.

Lillian Charzat, 8, 7800 aMyland av., missing. Last seen talking to strange man and woman.

School site quiz to wait until controversy between ousted members and board of education is settled.

Fred Vestel, 4830 Justine st., ate fried dog's heart. Dead. Coroner's verdict heart disease.

879 swindlers captured by Pinkerton bank agency. Mostly amateurs. Many not prosecuted.

Jurors in federal case refused to work Sunday. Judge Carpenter had to leave concert to get midnight verdict.

Jacob Harwich, policeman, re-wed former wife few days before death so woman could be beneficiary of policeman's fund.

Daisy Young, negress, 2918 S. La-Salle st., held as highwayman. Police claim she participated in 20 robberies.

Joseph Griffen, 22, and Joseph Morasco, 22, given 2 years in pen for robbing postal station.

George Voss, paroled convict, arrested for robbing William O'Connell, Lockport, $180. Voss will be returned to Joliet.

William H. Thomas, Jr., 18, 3350 S. Paulina st., "model young man," missing.

Carl Kowalski, 157 N. Leamington av., killed in Hines Lumber Yards, 333 N. Laverne av. Pile of lumber fell, crushing him.

Home of H. Hansen, 1655 N. Maplewood av., raided. Family drugged. $50 taken.

$30,000 reward offered by Great Northern railroad for capture of George E. Ball and Harry Mathews. Men held up train in Washington Feb. 20, killing several people.

John F. Jelke and nine associates convicted of oleo fraud want new trial.

Michael Roczkowez, 1444 W. Grand av., fined $50. Gambling house. 11 inmates fined $1.

71 policemen took tests for lieutenant of police.

Will of Charles M. Turner filed. Widow gets $120,000 estate.

Aman Moomjain, 22, 210 W. Whiting st., slashed Mrs. Saranoush Moomjain, sister-in-law, and V. Boyajain. Suicided. Others will recover.

Albert Russ, policeman who shot and killed 16-year-old Joseph Samanski, exonerated by coroner's jury.

Mayor Harrison claims traction companies are paying for sunshine posters in anti-subway campaign.

Ernest Dettman, 51, 916 Fullerton av., missing. Had $400 on person.

Peter Brown locked up for alleged bigamy. Tried to have one wife here and one in Detroit.

Trial of Maude Oberg, 20, for murder of Edward Precher, 22, begun.

Four citizens thrown from Brookfield cars for refusal to pay extra fare. One hurt. Persons ejected threaten $50,000 damage suit.

Babies' week April 19. Movies, electric signs and billboards to be used in health campaign.

William J. Wood, 334 S. Hamlin st., gave up 14-year-old son rather than have marriage with second wife annulled. First wife released from asylum claimed divorce was unlawfully obtained.

United States leads in murders according to Judge Kavanagh. 85,000 killed in 10 years. Our prison population greatest in world.

Moral squad after buffet flats. Clifford Perry, chauffeur, held in connection with places.

Relatives of Mrs. Elizabeth M. Skeen want to break will. Claim woman was unduly influenced.

Frame house on Artesian street burned to ground while fire engine